WINE SPECIAL

2016 Matteo Correggia Arneis Roero DOCG

Piedmont, ITA

Arneis vine variety has been penalised in the past, not due to its grapes but because it was very misunderstood! It was considered to be a simple and everyday wine without ambitious characteristics. However, in the last 20 years the quality of this wine has very much increased!! This is a great example of it. Classic Arneis with aromas of ripe brown pears, peach and lemons. A bright, crisp, dry and textural palate, it is everything you want in an Italian white wine.

2017 Massena Cavisté Blend

Barossa Valley, SA

A selection of Shiraz from the Massena vineyards on the Western Ridge of the Barossa blended with a collection of the diverse varieties that pass through the Massena cellar. Wild fermented, basket pressed and bottled without fining or filtration! Black pepper and cake spice are interwoven amongst rose water and turkish delight nuances. Earthy undertones offset with vanilla bean and raspberry - a real graphite minerality leading the palate.

PREMIUM WINE FROM CORAVIN

2016 Domaine André Bonhomme Viré-Clessé Vieilles Vignes Burgundy, FRA

$27/$125

This domaine was founded in 1956 by its namesake, André Bonhomme, who began with just four hectares he'd acquired from his father. He went on to become one of Burgundy's most respected wine figures and was instrumental in the creation of the Viré-Clessé appellation. Vieilles Vignes is made in very small quantities from yields of 35 hl/ha, and comes from 55-95 year old vines, matured 30% in tank and 70% in barrels, of which 20% is new. On the nose and palate a myriad of tropical and stone fruits showed vibrantly including white flesh peaches, lychee and tart passionfruit followed by wonderfully acidic lemon followed by lovely oak.

2015 Domaine Taupenot - Merme Bourgogne Rouge

Burgundy, FRA

$35/$160

The Average age of vines is 50 years and they've been worked organically since 2001. Attractive nose of high-toned roses with fresh red-berry notes, but also some brooding darker fruit and autumnal notes. Sweet spice, strawberry and cherry fruit on a palate that allies a satisfying volume of fruit with a touch of nerviness. Especially 2015 vintage is an extraordinary year and red are truly great: rich and powerful but almost always underpinned by juicy acidity.
